

Back in the Day ...

Ingersoll Street Names: Their Stories

April 20 at 2:00 PM

An on-line presentation hosted free of charge for all district residents over 50 years of age by the Ingersoll 50+ Activity Centre. (You do NOT need a Centre membership for this presentation.)

“ON THE STREET WHERE YOU LIVE”

Scott Gillies

Curator

Ingersoll Cheese & Agricultural Museum

Ingersoll resident or not, these and other stories behind street names are fun. Both famous author Jane Austin and the war of 1812 are linked to one Ingersoll street. The town's main business area was not on Thames street, for a logical reason. Another street reflects an understanding between two large property owners (hint: it was a agreement). A question and answer period follows.

Reserve by April 16 at 519-485-3869 or info@ingersollseniors.com

This is a Zoom event. After you register, you will be sent an email with a link. At presentation time, simply click on the link and you will be connected.