Discover new research into Ingersoll's history with UWO Professor Emeritus, George Emery. The author will discuss the lives of Ingersoll's Black citizens from 1850-1921 & why this population eventually declined. The results of his investigations provide a clearer and more accurate picture of the lives of Blacks in Ingersoll, seeking to debunk myths & folklore with evidenced based research.

Book copies available for purchase at the event by cash, debit & credit.

No registration, everyone welcome.
